

N	P	A		N	e	w	S
Edition 17				11 November 2005

Antigone/St. Joan Opens Thursday

This Thursday at 8 PM the junior/senior play will open at the Van Duzer Theater.

The play brings together two classic works, bridging cultural and historical territory. The dialogue between Sophocles' Antigone and George Bernard Shaw's St. Joan is an original work created by director Jean Bazemore and the NPA student cast.

Other performance dates are November 18, 19, 21, and 22. Shows begin at 8 PM.

San Francisco Opera Company and NPA bring 'Pirates' to Local Stage

NPA students will perform Pirates of Penzance with five members of the San Francisco Opera Company on Monday at HSU's Fulkerson Recital Hall.

NPA and other local high school students will attend this production.

NPA Mock Election

by Emelie Whiting

Last week a debate and mock election were held here at NPA. The results are as follows:

Prop. 73

(Parental Notification of Abortion)

Yes=9

No=52

Prop. 76

(State Spending Cap)

Yes=12

No=46

Undecided=3

NPA has a new web address.
Take a look!
www.northcoastprep.org

Congratulations Students!

Chelsea Morden was selected to play with the Honors Symphony Orchestra at the California Orchestra Director's Association's Festival which takes place on December 10th in Santa Monica.

Madeleine Nyhagen is currently a finalist for a Questbridge Scholarship.

COMFORT OF HOME CATERING

∞ PRESENTS ∞

HOLIDAY BREADS
& OLD WORLD COOKIES
Organic ingredients

Savor the Delicious Taste of Holidays Past and leave the baking to us!

The NPA CAFÉ chefs bring you
Holiday Breads & Cookies for your gift baskets and homes

We will donate $1.00 from each holiday bread sold to the NPA Travel Fund

Orders may be picked up at the NPA kitchen
on November 18th,
December 3rd and December 16th

Special orders can be arranged for other dates as well. Contact Lauren Sarabia for more details: 822-1781 or lsarabia@cox.net

NPA Runners Compete

by Julie Sylva

Last Saturday, Arcata High hosted the Humboldt-Del Norte Cross Country Championships at Patrick's Point State Park. There were 18 boys competing in the JV division. In spite of the stormy weather our runners did very well on the three-mile course:

Sylvan Arevalo 2nd, time 19:15

Nick Roney 4th, time 19:20

Our final adventure this season will be the "Meet of Champions" on Nov. 19th at Hayward High School.

Buy Your Yearbook!

by November 18 to get the best price:
$35. Checks should be made out to NPA Parent Fund.