Literature Seminars

Freshmen - Tuesday, January 22nd (House of the Seven Gables, by Nathaniel Hawthorne)
Sophomores - Wednesday, January 16th (Silas Marner, by George Eliot)
Juniors - Tuesday, January 15th (Gulliver's Travels, by Jonathan Swift)
Seniors - Tuesday, February 5th
(Emma – Jane Austen)

Students should arrive just before 7 - the seminars take place from 7 until 9:30 pm and, as always, include dinner.
Questions should be directed to either Jean or Michael. Thank you.

Yearbook Sales

Yearbook sales are beginning!
$40 (checks payable to NPA Parent Fund) Either Jay Scrivner or Isaiah Cooper will be available during lunch (at least on Wednesdays and Fridays) to collect and record payments.
These books will also be available to purchase online in the next few days, payable via PayPal.
The actual books will likely arrive in May, and Cotillion inserts will be available sometime in the summer.

Call for photos

They don't have to even relate to a school event, just pictures of students having fun or hanging out work as well.
Our staff doesn't have designated photographers to take pictures all the time, we largely rely on the student body to submit pictures that they've taken.

Submit photos for yearbook email them to npa.s.pub@gmail.com

If you're a senior or an exchange student, you need to have the following submitted by February 14:

- A 8.5x11" page (if submitted digitally then it must be 300ppi) of pictures/memories/anything you want for your Senior Page
- A portrait picture of you that you would like as your yearbook picture (you can get one taken professionally, take it yourself, or use one already taken-- preferably a recent one).

Poem for the Empty Space

Death's Secret

It's not true that death begins after life.
When life stops
death also stops.
